

My Body Is Private.

I wear clothes on my body to keep me warm and protect me. Wearing clothes helps to keep my body private.

My body is special. It helps me run and jump, eat, and play.

'Private' means that my body is just for me to touch and look at.

Sometimes I need Mum or Dad to help me wash and get dressed. This is ok.

The bathroom and my bedroom are Private places that are good for getting dressed and washing.

When I wash or get dressed, I need to go to a Private place.

It is not ok to dress or undress in public.
Public means a place where other people are around me.

Public could be at kinder, at school, or at home with Mum and Dad.

I might want to rub my body with my hand, or rub my body against something.

Sometimes when I am in Public, I feel like rubbing my body.

When I feel like rubbing my body, I need to go to my Private place.

It is not ok to rub my body when I am in Public.

It is great to keep my body private and use my private places.

When I keep my body Private and use my Private places, Mum is very happy.
